My a Book

by Jane Belk Moncure
illustrated by Pam Peltier

Mankato, MN 56001

He said, "I will fill my box."

He put the apples into his box.

Little found an alligator.

He put the alligator into his box.

Little found ants,
ants, ants.

"In you go, ants," he said.

Then Little

found arrows,
arrows,
arrows.

Did he put the arrows into his box?

He did!

Little a found an ax.

It was a toy ax.

He put the ax into the box.

Now the box was so full ...

the ants,

the arrows,

and the ax
fell out.

The apples and the alligator

fell out too.

"Who will help me
fill my box?" said Little

An astronaut came by.
"I will help you," said the astronaut.

"We will fill your box."

Then the astronaut took Little for a ride.

Up, up, and away!
